---Notice for General Public---

All students, research scholars, faculty members, and other interested persons are informed that a Cell for Philosophical Counselling and Praxis operates under the Department of Philosophy.

The Department of Philosophy, in a gesture of care and support, offers free philosophical counselling services to those interested in overcoming their day-to-day problems. They may either visit the department's Philosophical Counselling Cell in the SAP Building (opposite the Department of Geography) from 3 to 4.30 p.m. or make a prior appointment on phone Nos. 85608 25276, 9772242525

NB: Philosophical Counselling, a service designed to understand and acknowledge your existential predicaments, is not concerned with psychiatric illnesses.
